

Dear Friends,

November is arriving, and with it comes chilly air, holiday gatherings, and our annual invitation for you to join us for Give to the Max Day. As many of you are aware, Give to the Max Day is specifically set aside in Minnesota for financially supporting local non-profit organizations, like Outpost/TCJHOP. In years past, we've asked our supporters to consider giving a little extra this month. This year, however, we are doing something different: inviting new people to contribute to our ministry. We have so many who regularly pray and give, but to do all the work before us, we need to bring more people into this community of support.

Inviting others to join in is inherently biblical. Consider the story of Andrew and Philip in John 1. These men were disciples of John the Baptist when he pointed them to Jesus and said "Look, the Lamb of God!" (v.36). Both men began following Jesus that day. Scripture tells us the first thing Andrew did was go and get his brother Peter, saying, "We have found the Messiah" (v.41). Likewise, Philip went and got his friend Nathanael, telling him to "Come and see" (v.46). What prompted Andrew and Philip's actions? They had found the Messiah, and they couldn't wait to bring others to Him.

Have you have been blessed by the ministry of Outpost? Then we encourage you to be bold like Andrew and Philip to say "come and see!" to a few friends or family members. What do we mean? Think about what God has done in your heart, your mind, and your life to bring you hope and healing. Consider who you know that would be blessed and encouraged by hearing your story. Tell them your story and ask if they would like to help us bring that same hope and healing to others.

Our goal is to welcome 50 new donors into our community through Give to the Max Day. Here's how you can help:

- Visit givemn.org and create an account.
- Visit our organization page at givemn.org/organization/tcjhop and click the "Fundraise" button.
- Create a fundraising page using the provided template.
- Talk with people and invite them to give through your fundraising page from November 1 – 18.

Andrew and Philip boldly and speedily invited Peter and Nathanael to follow Jesus. This could not have been easy and, as we know, certainly cost them greatly. But it also brought them a great reward. Sharing your story of healing with others may feel daunting, but the reward is also great. Find one or two trusted people you can share with. Tell them what God has done and is doing in your life. Invite them to help us continue providing help and hope to others. And may the act of invitation bring you strength and encouragement to continue sharing your story so others can come and see the hope and healing of Jesus the Messiah for themselves.

Yours,

Wendy

Prayer Requests

- Praise God that Called Out of Darkness was such an encouraging event. The worship, testimonies, and prayer were all focused on Jesus in a really special way. One highlight of the evening was hearing our community give short, spontaneous testimonies!
- Pray that our volunteer leaders have a good and Godly balance of work, life, and ministry as they serve here at Outpost.
- Pray that staff would continue to lean on and trust God in the face of the many challenges of ministry work.
- Pray that both the staff and volunteers receive encouragement from the recent testimonies. God is working!
